Located walking distance to Dimbulah township is this 3-bedroom, 1-bathroom home situated on a fully fenced 675m² plot. Recent renovations have been completed on parts of the home. The main bedroom is generously sized and features electric blinds on the windows for added privacy. The second bedroom includes a spacious built-in wardrobe. The central lounge area offers electric blinds on the front windows, offering both privacy and light-blocking capabilities, ideal for a movie day. The kitchen and dining area are combined, featuring a standalone stove and storage space. The bathroom has been recently updated with a new shower and a separate bathtub. For added convenience, the toilet is situated separately. The laundry is internally located downstairs with backyard access to the clothesline. The large backyard offers access to the seasonal Sandy Creek that flows behind the property. The home is equipped with solar power, featuring 10 panels on the roof. The carport is an open undercover area that features cement flooring, making it ideal for use as an entertainment area as well.
