Enjoy a peaceful, natural lifestyle whilst staying connected to Greater Melbourne in the thoughtfully designed Meridian Estate. Built in 2022, this incredible home offers family living like no other. The highlights include a spacious central living zone, dual purpose fourth bedroom/second living room, a sizeable decked alfresco, and a sophisticated master suite. Enter a beautifully constructed home where attention to detail and craftsmanship are at the forefront. Light grey timber-style floors guide you to a spectacular central living zone, the perfect canvas for creating lasting memories with loved ones. The designer kitchen is a chef's delight, boasting an expansive stone countertop over a central island, with a breakfast bar, plus a walk-in pantry and high-quality stainless-steel appliances. Get cosy in the comfortable lounge with enough room for the whole family, savour regular family meals in the formal dining zone, or host gatherings with friends. Seamlessly connecting to the wonderful decked alfresco and manicured backyard, this is the ultimate entertainment space. A dual purpose fourth bedroom or second lounge makes for flexible living. At the front of the home, you'll find your own private retreat where the master bedroom invites you into a welcoming, bright space. Complete with luxurious ensuite featuring large shower and double vanity. The three additional bedrooms are comfortable, featuring mirrored built-in robes and large windows. The family bathroom is functional and modern, with a separate WC for convenience.
