This charming cottage is sitting high looking over the town and marina of Triabunna. On a large parcel of residential, fenced land of 1657 sqm, this property lends itself to opportunities as well as being able to reside on site. The house features 3 bedrooms, separate living, dining and kitchen area with heat pump for keeping you cosy. Outside laundry with 2nd toilet, storage shed with cement floor, garden shed and single car garage completes the package. This property would easily lend itself to subdivision (STCA) or strata title dwellings whilst still having lovely vistas and ample room around for extra storage of boats or additional outside buildings. Situated close to marina, local shopping and transport this property is priced to sell for those with a keen eye and keen to expand on property.
