With unrivalled positioning in a quiet residential street, this immaculate one owner home is positioned on a generous corner allotment with an extra wide frontage of 28.19m. Whether you wish to move straight in, renovate the existing home, knockdown and build your dream home or perhaps subdivide and redevelop (S.T.C.C), 11 Keats Grove provides an abundance of possibilities. For those seeking a dwelling to occupy and enhance, look no further, oozing natural light and options aplenty; whilst boasting multiple living zones, both formal and informal. The existing dwelling remains in immediate livable condition and comprises of a spacious living room with feature bay window, three generous bedrooms, master with walk in robe and ensuite, central bathroom with separate WC and a large laundry. The well equipped kitchen incorporates the dining area and flows out to the outdoor patio area. There is also a detached rumpus room. All this and more in the ever popular Fulham Gardens with ease of access to a fulfilling lifestyle, including but not limited to: walking and bicycle trails to Adelaide's most popular beaches and CBD as well as being situated within close driving and public transport proximity to the Adelaide Airport, Fulham Gardens shopping precinct, Harbour Town, Henley Square, restaurants and eateries, great schools both private and public alike, numerous parks and reserves. Perfect for now and even better for the future. RLA183205
