Rosedale; a coastal hamlet on the NSW South Coast known for its expansive white beaches and homes peppered amongst the hillside. Celebrating a mixture of original retro beach houses passed down through the generations or modern grandeur by Australia's best architect's. To purchase a vacant 1,691m² parcel of absolute beach frontage could well be a once in a lifetime event. The views will be extraordinary, the flat building parcel unrivalled. This could be the best blank canvas available on our coastline. A full fact sheet available on request.
