Richly charismatic with a stunning clinker brick façade and welcomed by a beautifully landscaped garden filled with colour and texture, this enchanting residence sits on a peaceful tree-lined street just seconds from much-loved Hays Paddock. Newly renovated and reflecting the latest design trends, the four bedroom, two bathroom layout features a peaceful master bedroom with a floor-to-ceiling tiled ensuite and a smart toilet, and a spacious stone bathroom with a free-standing tub. Single level with a sophisticated ambience that will appeal to growing families and savvy empty nesters, relax beside the open fireplace in the stylish lounge room and socialise in the generous dining room. Fitted with Bosch and Miele appliances, the epicurean stone kitchen with excellent storage looks out across the open-plan meals/family room, extending to the vast north-facing entertainer's deck and lush backyard. Features a dedicated study, multiple split system air-conditioners, ducted heating, polished floorboards, garden irrigation and off-street parking for two cars. Only metres from the city-bound bus, stroll easily to Kew East Tennis Club, Kew East Primary School, St Ann's Primary School, Kew High School, Harp Village eateries and the tram to Kew's prestigious private schools.
