11 Lupton Street is a fully renovated home on a large corner block. This beautiful home offers plenty of internal and external space and combines all the benefits of suburban living, with the ease of being close to major public transport. Walking distance to the Prince Charles/Holy Spirit Hospital precinct and the Huxtable Park bikeways means that this would be perfect for health staff looking to be close to work. The property itself is situated over two levels, with three bedrooms and the main bathroom upstairs. The spacious living and dining room, with attached open-plan kitchen outlook to the large covered deck - perfect for entertaining. The deck has access to its own powder room. Downstairs you'll find a two-car carport, as well as a massive rumpus room, large storage space, second bathroom, and two multi-purpose rooms (not legal height). The upstairs deck is mirrored downstairs with a large covered terrace area. Perfect for the expanding family. The home features beautiful wooden flooring, and all the modern touches expected, whilst still retaining that traditional charm.
