This well presented property comprises four bedrooms and one bathroom in the main residence with a separate studio apartment at the rear. The kitchen in the main residence has been renovated, is light filled, spacious with an open plan layout. The studio apartment has also recently been renovated. Under the main residence is a large workshop area. McKellar Street is surrounded by lovely greenery and tree-lined views, as well as providing privacy with its elevated position. The property is extremely well located, only 2km from the Hobart CBD, easily accessible via the Hobart Rivulet Track. Being so close to the city, the home benefits from an abundance of cafes, shops and amenities close by. A 12 month Lease Agreement is offered. No pets.
