

11 Oxford St, Mittagong, NSW 2575

Sold House

Tuesday, 14 November 2023

11 Oxford St, Mittagong, NSW 2575

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 1

Area: 771 m²

Type: House

David Whetton

$845,001

Your chance to have it all... a Mittagong address on 771m² with ample space, a pleasant outlook, solid home and ease of access for commuting and town access. Set on the lower reaches of Mt Gibraltar, amidst the education precinct of this thriving Southern Highlands town, this solid brick & tile home is the best of its era lovingly maintained for today's buyer. Be ready to entertain your friends from your own dedicated indoor bar or outside in the privacy of your garden, complete with brick BBQ. This property features: - 3 bedrooms (two with bay windows) - 3-way bathroom with diffused skylight - East facing front-to-street - Original neat, clean and functional kitchen - Spacious living room - Separate dining room - Inbuilt bar - Full separate laundry - Single garage with electric roller door - Concrete driveway - Side access - Large backyard with established plants, Hills Hoist, small greenhouse and small shed - Raised timber deck overlooking secluded yard. Located only 200m from Frensham School, 400m from Mittagong train station and 500m from the centre of town with its award-winning cafes & restaurants, hardware store and abundance of services. Available for inspection Saturday, Sunday (and midweek by appointment)