This inviting two bedroom home and designated office, offers ample space, accommodating various living arrangements with ease. The office space provides the flexibility to work from home or pursue your creative endeavours. Once you step inside the home, you experience the comforting embrace of timber floorboards, adding a touch of natural warmth and character. The kitchen has been updated and features a walk-in-pantry with ample storage. Outside the raised vegie beds provide you a head start for a thriving garden. With room for personalization, you can create your own tranquil haven. For further enquiries please contact Jo Hull
