Brilliantly located in the heart of Dudley, where you can wander to Paperboy Café, the town's two popular pubs, and Dudley Public School, this two-storey home is as lucrative an investment as it is brilliant long-term home. With plenty of character filling the interior, the four-bedroom layout flows easily between zones, with an updated kitchen paying homage to its retro past and a charming bathroom flaunting a claw-foot bath. Downstairs reveals a retreat space where you could work from home, or use as an additional bedroom or social space. An alfresco deck catches off-shore breezes and serves up a district view – ideal for unwinding after a long day. -☑Sweetly updated home with open plan living and four top-floor bedrooms -☑Warm and welcoming living and dining zone with polished timber floorboards -☑Updated kitchen with pressed metal features and freestanding 900mm s/s oven -☑Covered alfresco deck for outdoor dining, takes in a peaceful district view -☑Fully tiled and spacious bathroom with claw-foot bath and custom vanity -☑Light, bright and large ground floor retreat with easy care tiled floor -☑Split-system AC, ceiling fans, built-in robes, and plantation shutters -☑Single garage, driveway parking, and established greenery framing the home -☑Walking distance to Bombala Track, a track that leads directly to Dudley Beach -☑2km to Fernleigh Track Whitebridge, cycle into the city or down to Belmont -☑4km to Charlestown Square's shopping mecca and entertainment precinct
