Located in quiet Rankin Street, this family home offers space and style. Comprising three bedrooms (master with ensuite and walk in robe), the remaining two bedrooms offer built in robes. The family bathroom is complete with separate shower to bath and separate toilet. Two living areas and a light-filled kitchen ideally located to service the dining area and alfresco. Gas central heating, reverse cycle air conditioning, walk in pantry, ample storage, double garage with remote door and all situated on a comfortable allotment of 623sqm (approx.) that has been landscaped with now mature plants and vegetation. Whatever your vision, with two living areas inside and the private alfresco area outside, you're guaranteed this home will showcase the liveability features required for today's contemporary family, while neutral tones throughout provide a great base to add your own design and trends that will last for many years to come.
