This Macdonald Jones home is genuinely a standout property with all the added extras you could want. The separate media room and kid's activity area gives plenty of space for everyone in the family to enjoy. The open dining and family area off the kitchen provides a great space for entertaining, while the large parent's retreat offers privacy and luxury. The home is on a spacious 700 sqm lot with car access to the double carport through electric gates, providing both convenience and security. The ducted reverse cycle air conditioning ensures comfort year-round, while the intelligent lighting and security cameras add an extra level of sophistication to the home. Features like bulkheads to the high ceiling, tiled alfresco area, internal access to the double garage and large foyer entrance make this home truly special. To truly appreciate the value and all the added extras including, irrigated lawn & solar power to name a few.... you'll need to see it for yourself - so be sure to inspect this quality property soon.
