

11 Rivett Way, Brentwood, WA 6153

MONT

Sold House

Thursday, 4 April 2024

11 Rivett Way, Brentwood, WA 6153

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 1

Area: 332 m2

Type: House

Peter Zambotti
0893646668

$920,000

Sold as is where is. Location, affordability and dual prized school zones. An opportunity to create your own mark with this street front, 2000's built strata home brimming with potential to add value. A functional floor plan offering good proportions and a flexible design, the single level home is the perfect property for someone who wants to secure their piece of booming Brentwood with a home that can be lived in immediately or renovated in the future in your own style. From this ultra convenient location, you will enjoy being situated footsteps from all of the local amenities, parklands and reserves, major transport and freeway access while being nestled in the prized dual Applecross & Rossmoyne High School intake zones. The well built home is situated on a street front, 332sqm strata block with no strata fees. This is ideally suited to a downsizer, small family or executive couple who want the hassle free lock and leave lifestyle. Internally, the home is of good size and comprises of three/ four bedrooms, two bathrooms, multiple living areas, a large functional kitchen at the heart of the home, family sized laundry, easy care front and rear gardens, single garage, ample storage and much more. At this price, homes in Brentwood don't last long. This is the one you have been waiting for.