Daniel Nichols is proud to present to you 11 Robbie Drive a delightful and conventionally designed home situated in the ever-popular and closely guarded locale of Reynella East. This property, neat and tidy in every aspect, exudes an inviting charm that's perfect for anyone wanting to start their property journey, families seeking space, empty nesters looking to downsize, or savvy investors keen to expand their portfolio. Offering a wonderful blend of character, spaciousness and modern functionality. With three generous bedrooms, this property comes with room for everyone. Designed for comfort and ease of living, it features multiple living zones intermingling seamlessly with an open-plan arrangement. This extensive layout lends the house an airy atmosphere, ensuring both privacy and a shared living experience can be enjoyed by all its residents. The heart of this beautiful home consists of a classic kitchen, tastefully decked out with stainless appliances. It's a space where the aroma of home-cooked meals infuse the air, adding warmth to the already inviting ambience that pervades throughout the home. Embracing the outdoors, the property boasts a pergola, serving as a perfect spot for alfresco dining or entertaining guests. The potential of this space is only limited by your imagination, as it eagerly awaits to be transformed into a lively hub of family gatherings and friendly get-togethers. With its proximity to local schools and public transport, this home caters to families and professionals alike. It's an ideal place to establish roots within this vibrant community at Reynella East.
