Offering exceptional space and entertaining capabilities, this contemporary take on the classic Californian Bungalow sees a suite of modern luxuries complement timeless elegance and finesse. The ideal family home in every sense, a pristine interior enjoys effortless flow from front to back, with three considerable, robe-enhanced bedrooms accompanied by a pair of on-trend bathrooms. Its character preserved through original fireplaces and towering ceilings, sublime natural light bathes successive living and dining areas, joining a wide entertainer's alfresco in being served by a storage-rich kitchen featuring soft, trendy tones, timber benches, and premium appliances. Stretching to a wide rear laneway, a considerable backyard offers secure parking for two alongside ample room for energetic kids, while other highlights include a front driveway (third car space), ducted heating/cooling, solar energy, and laundry facilities. Thoughtfully reinvigorated with a focus on family function, it's near a selection of peaceful parks and acclaimed schools, with Anstey Station, numerous trams, and Sydney Road's renowned range of eateries, bars, and boutiques just steps away.
