Nestled in the heart of South Portland, overlooking the picturesque coastal township, 11 Tamora Crescent offers an idyllic lifestyle. Within walking distance to the golf course and local beaches, this charming residence stands proudly on an elevated 668m² allotment, boasting a solid brick veneer construction and immaculate presentation throughout. Featuring 3 bedrooms, 1 bath, and 2 spacious living areas, this home is designed for comfort and convenience. Each bedroom is adorned with built-in robes and offers easy access to the large bathroom which meets all your needs while the updated timber kitchen showcases modern appliances, perfect for culinary enthusiasts. Natural light floods the interior through a large north-facing window, creating a warm and inviting ambiance. The second living area provides seamless access to the expansive backyard, ideal for entertaining or relaxing amidst beautifully manicured gardens. For hobbyists or little ones, a quaint craft room offers endless possibilities for creativity or play. Additionally, a single garage and garden shed provide ample storage space for your convenience. With its proximity to the golf course, local beaches, and amenities, 11 Tamora Crescent presents an unparalleled opportunity for first-time buyers or savvy investors alike.
