Nestled within the heart of Latrobe, a picturesque town known for its vibrant community and serene surroundings, 11 Thomas Street stands as a testament to timeless elegance and convenience. From its commanding presence on a 787m² corner block to its meticulously crafted interiors, this 60s-style red brick residence beckons you to embark on a journey of unparalleled comfort and ease. As you approach the property the allure of its classic red brick façade is undeniable, hinting at the warmth and character that await within. Positioned in a coveted central location, mere moments away from the bustling town centre, 11 Thomas Street offers unparalleled access to a myriad of amenities, from quaint cafes to boutique shops, catering to every lifestyle need with effortless ease. Step inside and you're greeted by a spacious lounge room, bathed in natural light streaming through large windows that capture the enchanting glow of the afternoon sun. Here a cozy heater invites you to unwind and relax, while the expansive layout provides ample room to arrange your furniture, creating an inviting space for both intimate gatherings and lively entertainment. Journey down the extra-wide hallways, flanked on either side by three generously sized bedrooms, offering sanctuary and privacy for growing families. Each room exudes an air of tranquillity and comfort, providing a serene retreat for restful nights and peaceful mornings alike. At the heart of the home lies the sunlit kitchen, where mornings come alive amidst the gentle embrace of the rising sun. With an abundance of space and storage, this culinary haven invites you to unleash your inner chef, while the adjacent dining area offers a charming setting for family meals and cherished moments shared with loved ones. Outside, the expansive corner block beckons with endless possibilities, boasting two separate garages and ample room for further expansion or development. Imagine the potential to create your own oasis, complete with lush cottage gardens and verdant spaces to cultivate your own vegetables, enveloping the senses in a symphony of colour and fragrance. For families with young children, the proximity to the local primary school directly opposite the property adds an extra layer of convenience, ensuring that every day begins with ease and simplicity, without compromising on quality education or precious moments spent together. In every aspect, 11 Thomas Street embodies the essence of Latrobe, offering a harmonious blend of classic charm and contemporary living. Whether you're seeking a peaceful retreat to call home or envisioning a strategic investment opportunity, this remarkable residence stands ready to fulfill your every desire and exceed your highest expectations. Embrace the allure of Latrobe living at its finest – your extraordinary journey begins here.
