Nestled in the outskirts of Foster and set amongst the natural bushland you will find 11 Toto Court. Situated on 2.5 Acres and cleverly designed to take full advantage of the tranquil atmosphere, this home is family acreage living at its very best. Inside is smartly appointed and well thought out, offering three good sized bedrooms or fourth bedroom/study, two with built in robes and a master bedroom with walk in robe and ensuite. Expansive open plan kitchen/living area with loads of room for family and friends. The modern open plan kitchen boasts an abundance of cupboard and bench space, quality appliances and a beautiful outlook through the windows, across to the alfresco area and backyard space. Two living areas and a separate dining area ensures space is not a problem for the family in this home. And with heating and cooling by way of reverse cycle and wood heater you will be comfortable all year long. The main bathroom features a bath, shower and vanity with a separate toilet. Embracing indoor/outdoor living, step out into the alfresco area and soak up the beautiful views of the low maintenance native gardens surrounding you - This is the perfect space for entertaining and features a firepit to keep you warm and cosy. Outside also features a 10m x 8m lock up shed with concrete & power, vines and hot house to keep those who enjoy gardening busy. Located only a couple of minutes to Foster, 12 minutes to Fish Creek, and only a short drive to the stunning beaches throughout South Gippsland, this is the chance to find a great home that truly offers the peaceful atmosphere of country living with the convenience of not being too far from town.
