Peacefully positioned on the ground floor of the chic Sassari Apartments complex, this stylish, fully air-conditioned, executive apartment opens to a unique outdoor space that integrates with the spacious interior. With an open plan layout, a combined living and dining area to the expansive, paved, undercover patio and garden courtyard. A large, elongated masonry planter box filled with lush tropical plants and a garden define this outdoor haven which invites relaxed entertaining and alfresco dining. Stone benchtops, ample cupboards and a double pantry, with push-to-open fittings, impart a clean finish to the designer kitchen. An Omega oven and induction cooktop, double sink, stainless steel dishwasher, large refrigerator niche and breakfast bar are enhanced by a mirrored backsplash which reflects light and adds visual impact. Two large, built-in bedrooms, one with ensuite, have direct access to the patio while an additional luxe bathroom, together with a concealed laundry, continue the theme of high-end luxury. Added features include security entry, ducted air-conditioning, a double car space, plentiful visitor parking and an attentive onsite manager. Residents of Sassari can also enjoy spectacular city views and barbecues with groups of friends in an adjacent pavilion to the rooftop pool. Located only a short distance from the city, South Bank and so much more on offer in this vibrant, upper chic precinct. Commune with nature along dedicated walking and cycling paths or visit the bustling West End farmer's market on the weekend for your fresh produce. Situated within the prestigious BSHS school catchment, educational facilities are close by, including South Bank Institute of Technology and QUT. The City Glider connects West End to the City and New Farm running every five minutes in peak time or fifteen minutes on other occasions.
