Elevated and commanding, this beautiful, lush 2-hectare block sits just south of the Lower Chittering Townsite. A building envelope has been cleared and levelled on the highest point of the block - providing 360-degree views of rolling hills, bushland and winter streams. The block is fully fenced and gated, with lush pastures able to host livestock. Established jarrah, marri and wandoo trees provide interest, shade and habitat for local birdlife. Sit back, relax, listen to the birdsong as the sunrises and sets on your beautiful country home. There's no time limit to build, so you can envisage your dream home, plan and then build when time allows. Power is available from the boundary, as too a Telstra connection.

Location Situated on the Darling Scarp, Lower Chittering is a blend of lush pastures, hills, valleys and streams.
