Beautifully polished with an immaculate attention to detail, this single-level home offers elegant interiors with low-maintenance appeal. Boasting the results of a top to toe renovation and nestled in a cul-de-sac setting, enviable liveability is on offer with prime access to coveted schooling and dining precincts as well as brilliantly central to transport corridors, the CBD and airport. Manicured landscaping and a pristine facade open to a light and airy interior with timber-toned floors bringing warmth to a crisp white palette. Spacious living and dining is set in open-plan with a separate living room offering versatile options to privately retreat, if desired. Classically dressed with white cabinetry, there is plenty of storage in the new modern kitchen, stylishly complimented by a mirrored splash back, premium appliances and sleek white stone with waterfall ends. There is wonderful connection outside for easy alfresco living and dining, perfectly provided by a tiled and covered patio. Nestled amongst lush landscaped surrounds, you'll enjoy a wonderful element of privacy and a fabulous sense of escape. Three bedrooms each include built-in storage with intelligent design allowing easy transition of the second living room to a fourth bedroom, if preferred. The master has a walk-in robe and gorgeous new ensuite, beautifully appointed with a luxurious bath and mirrored storage whilst the main bathroom has also been renovated and is equally impressive. Additional features include a separate laundry with built-in cabinetry, plantation shutters, ducted air-conditioning and detached double garage. A premier inner-north location, enjoy being within minutes from the famous racecourse districts, including renowned dining precincts and an array of prestigious schooling options. Just 3km to the Brisbane River foreshore and 6km to the CBD, enjoy the unique lifestyle advantages this premier property provides!
