Perched on the 11th floor of the Boulevard 610 complex, this high-rise apartment embodies the essence of urban living. The combination of comfort, modern amenities, and a sought-after location make it an optimal choice for first-time homebuyers, city enthusiasts, and astute investors. The layout is centred on a light-filled living and dining room. On one side is the kitchen equipped with Ariston oven, gas cooktop and dishwasher, while on the opposite side, a prominent picture window perfectly frames Albert Park's greenery and the shimmer of Port Phillip Bay. The two bedrooms are serviced by a bathroom appointed with a shower-over-the-bath setup and a discreetly tucked-away European laundry. Enhancing security and convenience, the apartment offers a car space and video intercom entry. Tram stops providing a swift commute to the CBD and Albert Park for jogs or relaxed strolls are merely steps away. Additionally, the dynamic vibes of Fitzroy, Greville, and Chapel Streets - renowned for their gourmet dining experiences and lively urban culture are within comfortable walking distance.
