This compact, one-bedroom, one-bathroom unit has been skillfully designed to maximize every inch of available space, without compromising on comfort or convenience. Despite its small size, it provides a complete, modern living experience that's well-suited to urban singles or couples. The apartment's space optimization is remarkable. The fully equipped kitchen, though snug, is perfect for rustling up meals, and the strategic placement of modern appliances further enhances its usability. One of the unit's major highlights is the inclusion of an indoor laundry area. Although small homes often lack this essential feature, the inclusion of laundry facilities in this unit is a significant advantage for those seeking convenience. The star feature of this unit - the amazing water views and the spectacular sight of the Anzac Bridge. Whether it's a sunny afternoon or a twilight evening, the view from this apartment is nothing short of mesmerizing. The blue waters against the bridge's impressive construction creates a unique urban seascape that is rewarding day in, day out. Features:- Internal Laundry- City and Water Views- Walking distance to UTS- Close to shops, Cafes and public transport- Street Parking
