The bathroom has a contemporary feel with stone benches, neutral tones, and access to a European laundry and your year-round comfort is ensured with reverse cycle split system air conditioning. The complex is popular for a number of reasons and one of these is its location. Take the light rail to Braddon or the City for the restaurants and nightlife or cross Northbourne Avenue into the Dickson café and restaurant precinct. It's also a short walk to the Old Canberra Inn or Tilley's at the Lyneham shops. It's also close to the Australian National University and a short drive to the University of Canberra - you couldn't ask for a better investment!
