Are you looking for a classy contemporary easy-care lifestyle walking distance to modern conveniences? Here it is! Come home to the Invita Apartments in Wellard, sleek and secure and just a short walk to Wellard Square shops and the train station! This lovely secure complex is so cleverly designed and your apartment includes your stunning chef's kitchen complete with gorgeous stone benchtops and dishwasher, two good-sized bedrooms with built-in robes and a bathroom each zoned either side of the spacious kitchen/living area for added privacy. Both bedrooms and the living area flow through to the large terrace - all with their own sliding door access to this area which will be so perfect for entertaining friends and family or just chilling out with your favourite beverage at the end of a busy day. Just off the kitchen/living area is a handy study nook and a decent sized laundry which includes a clothes dryer. Your home includes a great lockable storage area with internal lockable storage room right next to your apartment for easy access. Plenty of room here for sporting equipment and other bits and pieces you need to securely tuck away. At the weekends, why not leave the car at home and jump on the train to the city? Or wander across to Wellard Square for coffee and shopping?
