'Fairway Views'

Located down a private, leafy road that is uniquely in the Sorrento golf course precinct, is this charming weatherboard home only a short stroll from the village, ocean and bay beaches. This lovely light filled home features open plan living, central kitchen, vaulted ceilings, extensive glazing which showcases the lush garden creating a calming ambiance. A spacious master bedroom with ensuite and walk in dresser, 3 further bedrooms, ducted heating and cooling, separate bathroom and laundry. The large rear alfresco deck is the perfect place for entertaining with family and friends and has direct access to the workshop and double garage alongside. A double carport sits in front of the garage providing ample parking and shelter for all the toys. This property is set in an exceptionally peaceful location that is remarkably still in the heart of all the action.
