Located in the prime position of one of Ballarat's most prestigious streets, this property is an exceptional find amongst hospitals, quality schools and just a few steps from Lake Wendouree. Positioned perfectly on half an acre (approx).The Property is ideal as a home and would certainly benefit from a renovation on a grand scale such as the architectural concept that has been developed. There is space for a pool, tennis court and more, whatever your dreams are. Featuring two living spaces, a sunroom and multiple outdoor entertainment areas, this home is perfect for entertaining, especially in the warmer months. The grounds have been thoughtfully landscaped leaving the option for further development. This property is truly a great opportunity, you won't want to miss out! Private inspections only. No access without agent. Call today to book an inspection time.
