It's time to bid farewell to your landlord and climb the property tree or add a high-yielding investment to your property portfolio! This one-bedroom apartment represents easy, affordable living at an address that is one of the first of its kind in Highett's cosmopolitan railway precinct - a melding pot of colourful Melbourne vibrancy and coastal ambience. On the door of Highett Road shopping, dining & cafes; Highett Station with just one stop away from Westfield Southland and an express line into the CBD. Boasting an INCREDIBLE north-facing entertaining terrace, you'll always find a reason to slip outside to soak up some sunshine with a good book! Square-set cornices, full-height double-glazed windows, quality carpet and blinds, stone surfaces and ducted reverse cycle air-conditioning. A generous bedroom with mirrored robes, closely serviced by the sleek, fully-tiled bathroom and combined laundry, with mirrored storage and an oversized shower. Quality stone-top kitchen with great overhead/under-bench storage, Bosch cooking appliances and a concealed dishwasher. Open plan dining/living and a HUGE terrace balcony with fogged privacy glass and an absolute northerly aspect, poised to play host to your guests for dinners, drinks, board games or the Hottest 100 countdown. Video intercom, lift access, a storage cage and secure parking space - not that you'll need it in this location! An appealing investment or a chance to embrace the unique lifestyle that only Melbourne's bayside can deliver.
