This standout dual level one bedroom, one bathroom apartment, located in the Heritage building of "The Bank" built in 1876, offers a beautiful blend of old world charm and contemporary finishes. Entering this property you are drawn to your open plan dining room with separately zoned living room that flows seamlessly to your integrated and stylish kitchen with European appliances and ample storage, offering functionality and style. Your separately zoned living room can be created into a second bedroom, or can be used to enjoy the natural light that this apartment has to offer. Making your way upstairs, the large bedroom area offers built-in-robos and carpeted flooring leading to your well appointed bathroom with internal laundry. With integrated heating and cooling, large storage room, security entrance via a stunning marble foyer, private access to the onsite gym and access to the Treasury Restaurant and bar, this apartment offers the best of heritage living in a superb location of Melbourne. Located in the heart of Melbourne CBD and only a short walk from Flinders Street Station, Southbank, Bourke Street Mall, Emporium and all of Melbourne's very best eateries, you can be sure to enjoy every aspect that this property has to offer.
