

112 Golf Circuit, Tura Beach, NSW 2548

Sold House

Monday, 23 October 2023

112 Golf Circuit, Tura Beach, NSW 2548

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 7

Area: 4142 m2

Type: House

James Smith
0264951988

Tara Stone
0428096232

$1,110,000

Representing a great presence that creates a welcoming yet dramatic prelude to the light-filled interiors, an iconic lifestyle is delivered by this awe-inspiring residence, nestled in the heart of leafy Tura Beach. Boasting a brilliant combination of scale and light, the home opens to reveal a collection of timber features, expert craftsmanship and uncompromised living beyond an initial layout designed for functionality. Capitalising on its privacy and ocean views, sensational entertaining dimensions spill across an indoor/outdoor design with distinct lounge and dining zones. Stainless steel appliances, a walk-in pantry and sophisticated timber finishes complete the kitchen with garden aspects. A generous floorplan includes a master bedroom, ensuite bathroom, walk-in robe and an additional three bedrooms with extensive storage, a central family bathroom and laundry. There is direct deck access to outside patio and deck areas. Back-dropped by a native aspect with landscaped garden the property also has a rear double shed with expansive covered area and is a versatile space with endless potential. Finalising its offering an exclusive position ensures close proximity to some of the South Coast's best beaches, National Parks and seaside villages. 4,142sqm* block / Ample room for additional cars, caravan and boat / reverse cycle air-conditioning plus slow combustion wood fire place / Double garage to the residence and a 5+ vehicle shed/studio / Fully landscaped gardens / Short walk to Tura Beach shopping centre.*specifications are indicative only