This charmingly restored post-war brick home is tucked away in a quiet, elevated part of Mitchelton, with panoramic views of the city. Inside you will find elevated ceilings, hardwood floors and beautiful decorative features throughout. The layout boasts a spacious living and dining area with a modern kitchen, updated bathroom and three generously sized bedrooms. Step outside to discover a spacious covered retreat at the rear, ideal for alfresco dining or as a versatile space for recreational activities, be it a gym or playroom for the little ones. What we love:

- Two additional bedrooms, (one with built-ins), with air conditioning
- New window coverings in bedrooms

- Modern kitchen with dishwasher
- Single automatic lockup garage under house with a large area perfect for storage or a workshop (or both!)
- Extra-large spacious carpeted retreat at the rear
- Separate internal laundry and an additional toilet at the rear
