Have you been watching The Block and looking for your next project? Then look no further! This original diamond in the rough is waiting for that person who can see beyond what's in front of them and understand what is required to be done to bring this property back to it's former glory. Very well maintained throughout the years, this property offers three bedrooms, one with robe, polished floorboards throughout and separate lounge room. Kitchen has free standing electric oven and plenty of storage. Additional features include, split system and ducted heating, large front and rear yard with garage. Perfectly located close to Public Transport, Schools, Shops and Bell Street. Book an inspection so you can see for yourself what this property has to offer!
