Escape the hustle and bustle of city life and discover the tranquility of rural living. This charming retreat offers a blend of timeless charm and modern comforts, making it the perfect sanctuary for those seeking peace, relaxation, and potential for an off-grid lifestyle. Consisting of 3 bedrooms this home has been thoughtfully renovated including a blend of modern and newly appointed character features. With a new roof, cladding and double glazed windows this property provides the reassurance any new homeowner needs for a modernised home. Enjoy the comfort of wood or electric heating for both internal comfort and hot water with future potential for an off-grid lifestyle. Water is sourced from water tanks that can be replenished by bore or rainfall and is filtered by reverse osmosis. Including two separate titles this property has investment potential for an astute buyer. Don't miss your chance to own a piece of rural paradise with this meticulously renovated character property.
