

112B Balook Street, Lauderdale, Tas 7021

Sold House

Saturday, 10 February 2024

112B Balook Street, Lauderdale, Tas 7021

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 3

Area: 330 m2

Type: House

Sam Monks

$1,120,000

Showcasing the best of contemporary design, this stunning newly built two storey home provides resort style living in an incredible setting, perched behind the beautiful Lauderdale beach. Architectural home on the beach front The beach right on your doorstep Private and leafy, the perfect lifestyle Light filled open plan living with stunning views Modern kitchen with quality appliances Master bedroom with ensuite and walk in robe Separate laundry with external access Fantastic outdoor entertaining deck Expansive views across Frederick Henry Bay & Mount Wellington Large garage with internal access Ample off street parking available Short commute to local amenities Under 25 minutes to the Hobart CBD Rent return $630 - $700 per week approx. The residence is without doubt one of the most spectacular homes to have been built on Balook Street. Achieving the highest standards of modern day comfort with fully developed and extremely low maintenance outdoor areas to maximise time at the beach. Certainly a very rare opportunity to secure a premium property and an enviable lifestyle.