This meticulously designed property near lively Sydney Road, Temple Park and Jewell Station offers a harmonious blend of style and functionality. The modern design of the formal lounge benefits from north-facing sunlight, built-in storage, and a built-in desk. All-new timber flooring and double glazing run throughout the interior, with high ceilings adding an elegant touch. The open-plan layout seamlessly connects a second living/dining area to a stone-top kitchen with stainless steel appliances, dishwasher and walk-in pantry. Outside, an inviting paved entertaining area with high fencing and a double carport (via ROW) provides a low-maintenance retreat. A well-designed stairwell connects a powder room, a bright study zone and two robed bedrooms, central bathroom featuring skylight, and balcony. The master bedroom (ground-level) boasts an ensuite bathroom overlooking a central courtyard. Additional features include a full-size laundry, intercom system, alarm, ducted heating, and bulkhead cooling for a comfortable living experience.
