Set on a 1.6 hectare parcel of land in a peaceful country setting is this contemporary solid brick home with exceptional charm and distinctive functionality. The home's brick exterior blends perfectly with the natural landscape, while internally a functional layout maximizes both natural light and space. Every element of the interior builds a connection to its surroundings, from the warmth of cork flooring to the rustic allure of exposed brick walls and the timeless elegance of cedar timber. Ideal for accommodating a large family or offering flexible living arrangements, the home can be enjoyed as a unified whole or divided into two distinct sections. The main portion boasts five bedrooms, two living areas, three bathrooms, a spacious kitchen, and a combined kitchenette and laundry area. When separated, each section offers its own distinct charm and functionality. Section one comprises a combined kitchen, dining, and living space, three bedrooms, a family bathroom, and a laundry. Meanwhile, section two features two bedrooms, a combined kitchenette and laundry, a bathroom, and a captivating living area with elevated ceiling, open fire place and generous windows that seamlessly combine indoor comfort with the allure of the great outdoors. Throughout the home, thoughtful features include built-in robes in four bedrooms, split system units in both living areas, a cozy combustion wood heater in the main kitchen/living space. Outside, the delights continue with a double garage, an inviting outdoor entertaining area, ample shedding, and a reliable water supply courtesy of tanks and a bore. For added convenience, a standalone outdoor bathroom beckons caravanning guests, while a fully enclosed front yard boasts a charming cubbyhouse, perfect for little ones to explore. With its versatile layout, abundant privacy, and generous acreage, this property offers a haven to truly immerse yourself in the country living.
