Proudly presented to the market for the first time in history this well built home sits high and on a dry, large allotment (in excess of 1000sqm) close to Tank Hill. Built to last forever the living zone is oversized and ready to cater for gatherings and creating loving memories. The elevation of the home creates a nice sense of feel and on top of the three bedrooms there is also a large study. The double sized carport is very roomy and offers use for multi purposes and the solar panels reduce the running costs. There is a separate granny flat/bungalow at the rear of the property featuring a bathroom and a built in bar. This can be used as another entertaining area/ workshop/ sewing room/ guest room or whatever may suit the new home owner. With rear lane access it is easy to get in and out of the property. Loved for so many years, now ready to be embraced by new owners.
