If you're a couple on the hunt for your perfect nest or looking for an ideal home as you downsize, this property promises to deliver with its superbly comfortable and low-maintenance interiors that can be further enhanced with a modern facelift. Split-level in design the home showcases two bright bedrooms with the master boasting ensuite effect to the dazzling central bathroom with corner spa bath adding a touch of luxe to your everyday. Step down to an open-plan living domain centered around a functional skylit kitchen with dishwasher and electric cooking. Outside, a supremely private tiled courtyard features an alfresco deck and not a finger to lift when it comes to garden maintenance so you can enjoy your weekends in the sun. There is rear door access to the single garage and a storage room/home office space (also accessed via rear laneway). The home is further enriched by split system air-conditioning, an electric wall heater, a powder room, and Euro-style laundry.
