JUST LISTED

Boasting modern appeal and a peaceful position on a 607sqm block, this newly renovated home offers a highly desirable lifestyle in a family-friendly setting. Recently transformed with stylish flooring, contemporary appointments, and a bold palette of black, grey and white tones, the house is immediately inviting and ready to enjoy. Entering from the front deck, you are greeted with an open layout, showcasing two living areas and a dining space kept cool with air-conditioning and beautiful breezes drawn in through louvre windows. With the floor plan surrounding the central kitchen, featuring stone benchtops, plentiful cabinetry and stainless steel appliances, you will love the sense of flow and connection. Outside, the grassy backyard is nestled by the rear patios, creating a quiet retreat for your morning coffee or kids' playtime. Three bedrooms are serviced by two stunning bathrooms, including the master with a walk-through robe, air-conditioning and an ensuite. Laundries are found on both floors, and the property features excellent storage and parking for two cars below. Positioned in a picturesque suburb, this home offers a family-oriented lifestyle. Ambrose Treacy College is 500m away, St Peter's Lutheran College, Brigidine and Montessori are moments from your door, and children are within the Indooroopilly School catchments. Beautiful parks, playgrounds and sporting fields are just a short walk away, Lone Pine Sanctuary is 4 minutes from your door, riverfront walks are nearby, and you can access the scenic hiking trails up Mt Coot-tha in minutes. Only 2km from Indooroopilly Shopping Centre, 1.6km to Kenmore Plaza, and offering quick access to the Western Freeway, Legacy Way Tunnel, bikeway and bus stops - transport and shopping are made easy.
