

115 Vines Avenue, The Vines, WA 6069

Sold House

Wednesday, 31 January 2024

115 Vines Avenue, The Vines, WA 6069

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 4311 m2

Type: House

Chris Wilkinson
0892973300

Contact agent

Welcome to your own private sanctuary on this 4311m² elevated block, where tranquility meets convenience. This spacious residence offers a unique sense of seclusion, making you feel like you're in your very own retreat. Boasting four generously sized bedrooms, a separate lounge and dining area, games room and home office, this home provides ample space for your family to thrive. The open plan living, dining and kitchen area seamlessly connects to a large outdoor alfresco space – perfect for entertaining and creating lasting family memories, or relaxing in nature with a cuppa. The kitchen is a haven for the culinary enthusiast, featuring stunning black granite bench tops, a large freestanding electric oven, gas cooktop, and overhead cabinetry for smart storage solutions. It's a place where culinary aspirations come to life. Wake up to the harmonious sounds of birdsong and step into your recently renovated master bathroom, a haven of luxury with dual vanity, a large rain shower, and a sleek stone bench top. This master retreat promises comfort and sophistication, allowing you to unwind in peace and quiet. Outside, the property offers more than just a home – it's a haven for garden enthusiasts. With two garden sheds, a fire pit area, and a feature pond, the outdoor space is a canvas for your creativity. Just minutes away from The Vines Resort and Country Club, Brooklane Shopping precinct, and the renowned Swan Valley wine region. Your retreat is not just a home; it's a lifestyle where nature, convenience, and luxury converge. Don't miss the opportunity to make this remarkable property your own.