Sitting in the heart of Highett's lifestyle & entertainment district, this property delivers an outstanding lifestyle experience particularly suited to young professionals. Modern design elements include square-set joinery, clean lines, versatile open-plan living & dining, and an understated minimalism in both texture & form. Along with frameless showers with floor-to-ceiling tiling, materials include carpeted living zones and stone preparation benches. The centrepiece of the property is its oversized terrace. Spanning 9m along its length, its unobstructed access to natural light and adjoining undercover area promise year-round enjoyment. Floor plan features include a primary bedroom with WIR, ensuite, & study nook; a secondary bedroom with BIR, a shared bathroom, and full-sized study. The local area speaks for itself, but what makes this location truly exceptional is its proximity to beautiful local sports grounds, easy-access to the foreshore, and single-station stop to Southland SC.
