Welcome to 117 Bant Street located in South Bathurst and within close proximity to the town centre. Featuring a lovely three bedroom home with a granny flat and a relaxing spa. Overlooking the rolling hills of the Bathurst district the balcony is the perfect spot for a morning coffee or to read a book in the quiet! The bedrooms are comfortable in size and offer plenty of space for wardrobes whilst the bathrooms are conveniently positioned throughout the home. The back yard has plenty of room and offers a concrete driveway and large 2 car space shed which could be used for storage, any amount of toys or a man cave. The house has many functions and provides ample opportunity for new homeowners or your next investment property. To arrange a private viewing of this fantastic property contact Warwick Fish today!
