This charming brick house nestled in amongst its private well kept gardens on a well maintained 2.21 Ha (5 acres), offers a perfect blend of modern comforts and rural tranquility. Enjoy water views of the nearby Pet Reservoir and beautiful rolling hills from the comfort your sunroom lounge. The property boasts well-fenced paddocks, ideal for those with a penchant for farming or keeping livestock. A well maintained veggie patch awaits your green thumb, providing fresh produce for your kitchen. The spacious garage and workshops provide ample space for your car plus DIY jobs big or small. Step inside to find a haven of comfort with double-glazed windows, ensuring energy efficiency and a peaceful ambiance. The renovated kitchen and bathroom add a touch of elegance to the home, while the two living areas and a sunroom offer versatile spaces for relaxation and entertainment. With three bedrooms plus a study, this home caters to your family's needs, providing room for work and play. Don't miss the opportunity to call this property your own – a perfect blend of serenity, functionality, and Tasmanian charm.
