Comprising Pieces 52 and 53, this total of approximately 40 acres offers the best of many worlds! Damaged by the Wildfires of 2019/2020, the property retains a cement rain water tank and power is still on site. The regeneration of the native scrub must be seen to be believed and with approximately half of the property cleared, it is an ideal site for an eco-village development (Subject to Planning Approval). The western end of KI, is renowned for large acreage allotments, so a modest 40 acres is a very rare find indeed. Simply stunning scenery, just perfect for the lifestyle that is guaranteed by this secluded and tranquil Estate, complete with substantial dam.
