OFFERS

Tightly held, apartments in the iconic Vic Quarter building rarely come to market. This 2 bed 2 bath apartment is your chance to grab a slice of the quintessential Vic Park lifestyle. Beautifully built in 2019, 118/660 Albany Highway boasts a particularly fantastic south west facing balcony. It is absolutely huge (nearly as big as the internal living area)! For outdoor entertainers, pet owners and gardeners, this is so much more than your average 2x2 apartment. The kitchen really is the heart of this home with modern appliances, an excess of storage and oodles of bench space, this sleek modern space is ready for you to cook up a storm. With big bedrooms and generous living, this is a light-filled space you will want to come home to. Both the bedrooms boast walk in robes and the generous main bedroom features a balcony outlook and an opulent ensuite bathroom. Located on the vibrant Albany Highway foodie strip there is 3km of restaurants, bars, cafes and shopping, all walking distance from your front door. • NBN • Reverse cycle air conditioning • Induction cooking • Stone bench tops • This building is pet friendly. The building's facilities are truly second to none. From the pool to the common areas, this complex has been created and executed with quality of life in mind. Fancy a BBQ on the 5th floor with city views...why not, your friends will love it! The large community of owner occupier owners speaks volumes about what it is like to live here. Inspection really is a must. Don't miss this one you will kick yourself! Council - $2,088.52 Water - $1,065.91 Strata - $1,251.30
