It's time for something a little bit special with this absolute gem sitting right on the fringe of town. Proudly boasting a picturesque setting both front and back, this truly remarkable home will have you wanting to move in right away. The beautifully presented, well maintained brick home has so many little extras for you to discover. Features to the home include:

- Cosy sunken lounge with ducted heating and split system cooling
- Recently updated kitchen with modern appliances and breakfast bar
- Separate dining flowing into the sun room off the rear of the home
- Three fantastic sized bedrooms
- Freshly presented ensuite to the master and family bathroom
- Plenty of off street parking with carport and garage
- Established, low maintenance gardens and secure yard

Homes of this quality and value are often sought yet rarely found. Call today to schedule your private inspection.
