Large corner block in Baynton West!

This home is situated in the ever so sought after Baynton West on a corner block. This home was built with intentions to put a pool and shed in as there is so much room.

It features four spacious bedrooms, each with built in robes – ensuite and walk in robe to master, large theatre room and a study nook. The heart of the home is the open living/dining area with island bench, which leads through to the outdoor entertaining area – finished with lighting and ceiling fan set and a built in outdoor kitchen.

Upon entry you will find the separate lounge/theatre room and master bedroom, while the hallway will lead you to a spacious open plan living and dining area, overlooked by the well-appointed kitchen. The home is situated in the perfect spot on the block, you can fit a pool and shed and still have room to entertain. There is side access with double gates and well established gardens front and back.

This property won't last long, vacant possession available!
