Charming full of character homestead is ideally located to take full advantage of the districts surrounds. Only minutes to Mansfield, an easy drive to the ski fields and walking distance to the lake for a swim or conveniently take the boat out. This property boasts a range of impressive features, including three-phase power, a sizable solar system, and the grandeur of a magnificent 100-year-old oak tree. Encompassing 15.5 acres with sealed road frontage, the homestead comprises three bedrooms, a spacious kitchen bathed in natural light, pressed metal ceilings, and polished wood floors. The charm of yesteryear is evident with a large verandah, a combustion stove, a wood heater, and not one but three open fireplaces. Original stables, though in need of some tender care, exude their own unique charm. Enjoy breathtaking views from the back of the property, overlooking the homestead and extending out to the picturesque Lake Eildon.
