This updated 1920s apartment boasts two bedrooms and high ceilings. The apartment is one of only five in a tightly held block. The open-plan living and dining area features a bay window, along with an architect-designed kitchen with European cooking appliances, stone benchtops, a pantry workspace, and a dishwasher. The property includes two bedrooms with built-in robes, a modern bathroom, a concealed laundry, and storage throughout. Everything Brunswick has to offer in the local area includes Sydney Road cafes and restaurants, Barkly Square Shopping Centre, Princes Park, Jewell Station, and Royal Parade trams to university/hospital precincts and the CBD.
